ANTONIS
THEODORIDIS

PAINTINGS OF GREECE

1972

ANTONIS THEODORIDIS was born in Canea Crete in 1915. He studied painting in Athens and with well known Greek painters. After his service in the army in World War II, he resumed his art studies in Paris. He has participated in many exhibitions in Greece and he is represented in numerous private and public collections. This is his first one-man exhibition in the United States.

EXCERPTS FROM THE PRESS

"One of the most provocative and exciting Greek Artists of our day . . . work which though contemporary, is based upon Greek and international tradition . . . sensational wealth of colors, shades and intonations. His ability to detect beauty in everything that surrounds him is clearly evidenced."

Miltis Paraskeyaidis (ELEFTHEROS KOSMOS)

"Our immediate impression is the harmonious balance between the vitality of his design and the subtle sensitivity of his colors. Master of this delicate balance, he advances very successfully to encompass the most contemporary forms of expression."

Tonis Tsirbinos (NEA POLITIA)

" . . . he diligently works and creates, in the silence of his studio, a legacy of permanence and vitality, imprinting his name and furthering his fame, into the annals of the history of modern Greek art.
