PRICES OF TICKETS

I

The Committee of the Delphic Festival, desirous of assuring to visitors an agreeable sojourn, has rented special boats for the passage from Piraeus to Itea, the port of Delphi.

The boats will remain in the harbor throughout each series, so that the passengers will be able to pass comfortable nights sleeping on board.

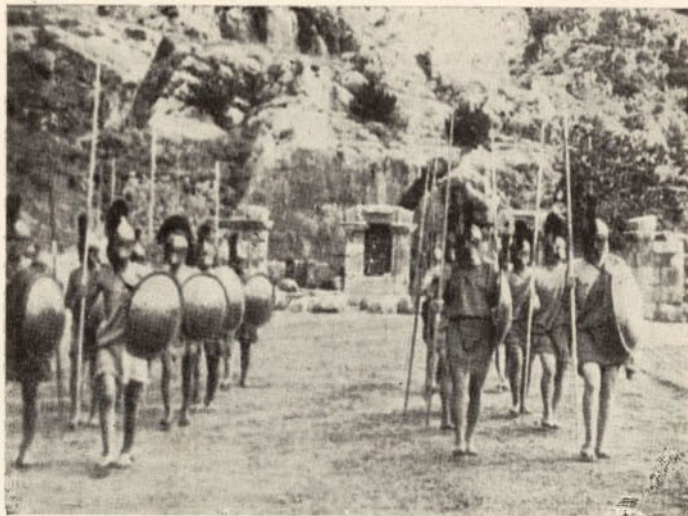

The passengers will return to Piraeus at the end of each series on the same boats.

The boat tickets are divided in three classes: Cabins de luxe, first and second class.

Holders of these tickets will have paid for all the details of transportation, including:

- 1) The steamship ticket from Piraeus and return.
- 2) The landing and embarking expenses in the harbor of Itea.
- 3) The automobile passage from Itea to Delphi and return daily.
- 4) And, as has been stated, the privilege of sleeping on board, using the boat as a hotel during the nights of the Festival,
- 5) With four breakfasts included.

Lastly, this ticket includes a first class entrance ticket for the entire Festival of three days. (Plays, games, exhibition, etc.)
